ACADEMY DIVISION RULES

Entries must be made by 7pm on 4/6

Academy classes are open to riders who actively participate in a riding lesson program with an instructor who teaches more than one student and accepts payment for such. The Academy rider may not have shown in any division at any show, except 4H and/or Academy/Tournament shows. Adult riders with a 10+ year break in showing may show Academy. Equitation: Judging will be based on basic equitation skills including correct diagonals, canter leads, balanced form, and effective control of the mount. No test will be allowed, classes will be judged on rail work and in the lineup. Pleasure: Judging will be based on the rider's ability to present their horse as a pleasure mount with emphasis on the rider's showmanship, ring awareness and horsemanship. The horse or pony will not be judged, however, must display characteristics and manners necessary for safety in a lesson program.

Riders:

- Riders who have cantered at any show are not eligible to compete in walk/trot classes.
- Riders must actively participate in a riding lesson program with an instructor.

Attire:

- Attire to be jodhpur pants and boots with a long sleeved button down shirt. Neckties, vests, gloves, and whips are permitted. Barn logo attire and full riding suits are not allowed.
- Protective headgear (SEI Approved) is REQUIRED for all riders under 18 yrs. old. All other riders are encouraged to wear protective headgear. Derbies or other hats are not permitted.
- Hair should be styled neatly back from the face and not obstructing the back number.

Horses:

- Academy horses or ponies must be mares or geldings of any breed and earn their living in a lesson program.
- Owned or leased horses may be used provided the horse is regularly used as a school horse. Performance horses not utilized in a lesson program are prohibited.
- Horses may not be braided. Standard show clipping and hoof black/dressing is permitted.
- Horses may not wear any artificial devices or be gingered. Action devices (chains, "stretches", bag whips, noise makers, powder, etc.) are prohibited

Equipment

- The saddle should be consistent to the style of riding.
- Any bridle (including work type) is permissible.
- Protective equipment (boots, leg wraps) is permitted.

ANY OUT OF CONTROL HORSE WILL BE EXCUSED IMMEDIATELY! The class will be stopped until the horse/rider have been assisted from the show ring.
